OACP Leadership Conference

Date and Time: Wednesday, April 9 8:00 am - 4:30 pm

Address: DoubleTree Fallsview Resort - 6039 Fallsview Blvd, Niagara Falls, ON L2G 2A5

"GROWING FUTURE LEADERS"

At this year's Leadership Forum, the theme, "Growing Future Leaders" will provide Ontario police professionals with a strategic approach to leadership that prioritizes specific goals, values, and behaviors, by leading self, leading teams and leading communities. This concept is particularly relevant in law enforcement, where leadership impacts not only the officers and staff but also the community they serve. Intentional Leadership is essential in maintaining public trust, ensuring officer well-being and effectively serving the community.

The Leadership Forum is a learning opportunity that allows Ontario police personnel to discuss, explore, and exchange ideas on areas of mutual concern/interest in law enforcement leadership and administration. This forum addresses practical, operational issues and provides participants with the tools to deal with organizational leadership challenges. Whether you are a member of a senior management team or middle management team, this is your opportunity to engage with your fellow police leaders on some of the most critical, contemporary policing issues today.

The program features discussion areas on leading self, leading teams, and leading community from subject matter experts and current police leaders.

OACP Media Relations Officers Course

Date and Time: Monday, April 28 8:00 am - 4:30 pm

Address: Delta Waterloo - 110 Erb Street West, Waterloo

In partnership with the OACP, the CCN (Corporate Communications Network) Executive hosts two training courses every year for those working in media and communication roles in Ontario police services.

New for 2025 - the Media Relations & Corporate Communications course now offers a four-day and five-day course option!

Throughout the course, members will receive hands-on training in several different areas, including how to conduct proper media interviews, how to develop key messages, how to write a media release, how to respond to a crisis, and how to use social media tools to your advantage.

Those who opt for the five-day course will have access to an additional day of one-on-one interviews, scrum practice, and tips for planning, hosting, and moderating a press conference (on the Friday).

After successfully completing the course, you will receive a certificate and Best Practices Guide. You will also become a member of the CCN group, giving you the opportunity to gain network and gain training and support from fellow Media Relations Officers (MROS), Public Information Officers (PIOs), and communications experts working in law enforcement throughout Ontario.
