2026 OACP Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion Training Symposium

Date and Time: Tuesday, April 21 8:00 am - 4:00 pm

Address: Harmony Events Centre (1011 Bloor Street East, Oshawa, L1H 7K6)

Join Us for the 2026 OACP Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion Training Symposium

Ontario police services are invited to participate in a transformative full-day training symposium dedicated to advancing equity, diversity, and inclusion (EDI) in policing. This event will feature dynamic sessions on critical topics such as religious literacy in policing, practical workshops on developing an organizational EDI strategy, and exploring the importance of building strong community connections. The day will conclude with an engaging Chief of Police panel discussion, where leaders will share successes, promising practices, and candid insights into the challenges their services face in implementing EDI initiatives.

This symposium is designed to benefit police services of all sizes—small, medium, and large—by providing attendees with actionable tools and strategies to strengthen EDI within their organizations. Participants will leave equipped with practical resources and innovative approaches that can be immediately applied to their own police service. Don't miss this opportunity to collaborate, learn, and lead the way in creating inclusive and equitable policing across Ontario.

Register HERE before April 1 to receive the Early Bird price.

Accommodations can be booked HERE at a discounted group rate.

Reintegration Facilitator Course

Date and Time: Monday, April 27 8:00 am - 4:00 pm

Address: Toronto Police College, 70 Birmingham St, Etobicoke, ON

The Ontario Association of Chiefs of Police is pleased to advise that the next Reintegration Facilitator Course is occurring April 27 - April 30, 2026. Toronto Police Service is hosting this year's course.

This Reintegration course was initially developed by the Edmonton Police Service (EPS) in 2009. They recognized the need for a program that would offer more substantial support for members returning to work after any critical incident. EPS then developed the Long-Term Reintegration program, designed to meet the needs of any member who has been away from the workplace for an extended period. An Instructor-Training course was then facilitated in Ottawa in 2021. There are currently nine qualified Reintegration instructors in Ontario from various police services.

The Reintegration Facilitator Course will ensure consistent training for and accessibility to the Reintegration Program for services across the province. This course aims to provide knowledge, skills, and abilities to those undertaking the critical role of Reintegration Facilitator and supporting members returning to work.

The objective of the Reintegration Facilitator Course will be to ensure that the delegate:

- Understands how to build a long-term and short-term Reintegration program,
- Understands how to be flexible based on the member's needs,
- Understands the importance of communication and confidentiality,
- Understands the importance of self-care and
- Gains practical skills through lectures, demonstration, and practice.

Training Module:

- Short-Term Reintegration Program
- Long-Term Reintegration Program

- Lived Experiences
- Case Studies
- Organizational Support/Logistics
- Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder
- Self-Care/Resiliency
- Scenario-Based Training

Who Should Attend:

The course is designed for sworn and civilian members responsible for their services' Return-to-Work programs following Critical Incidents (i.e., Officer Involved Shootings), PTSD or OSI Leave, or Legislative Leaves of Absence (i.e., Maternity Leave, Medical Leave). This includes Reintegration Coordinators/Facilitators, Use of Force Trainers, Peer Supporters, and Health and Wellness Representatives (Human Resources).

$599 Registration fee

Includes meals (Breakfast, Lunch, Refreshment Breaks)
